SALE 1:00 PM CST

Welcome Sheep Enthusiasts!

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you on behalf of the Tennessee Sheep Producers Association (TSPA) to the 2010 Tennessee Premier Sheep Sale in Carthage, Tennessee. One of the strongest attributes of the Tennessee Sheep Industry is the dedication of its breeders in raising and marketing some of the best sheep in the country.

Not only is this an excellent opportunity to support locally bred and owned Tennessee sheep, but 4-H and FFA members are encouraged to select their next project for this year's show season. If you travel around the country, it is hard to find a place where you can choose from this many excellent young lambs. Don't miss this opportunity.

This is a very exciting time in the sheep industry as the demand for lamb remains very strong. No matter the sector of the industry you might be involved in; these breeders have put together a selection of different types to fit your needs. Now is the time to strengthen your flock with proven genetics that will help you attain your breeding goals.

As you look through the top notch consignments this morning and throughout the afternoon, it is our hope as Tennessee Sheep Producers that you find something that fits your needs. Please feel free to ask any questions as you browse the consignments of this year's sale!
